

Hearts & Flowers

Red Roses & Snowdrops

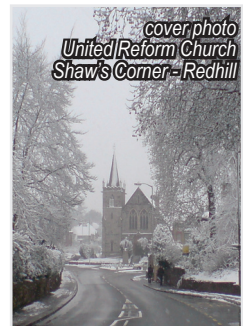

It's that romantic time of the year again, and I have to say that in spite of the doom and gloom in the news every day, it seems the spirits of our local venues are not dampened. There are a huge number of special events and themed evenings happening in honour of cupid's bow this year. Starting on Thursday 12th February with an evening of Opera and Fine Dining at La Lanterna entitled 'Love, Passion and Romance', for young people there's a contemporary and humorous insight into the lives of British Asian singletons from 19th - 21st Feb with 'Where's my Desi Soulmate' at the Hawth, with a single-mingle night on the opening night, and 2-for-1 cocktails. and ending on 28th February with a fundraising Valentine's Dance at the Woodhatch Centre (bring your own drink) for our more senior romantics, and something for everyone in between. What an amorous lot you are!! If you're single and feel uncomfortable about Valentine's Day why not head off to Le Roc's Valentine Ball. (Please see pages 10, 14 and 15 for details of all these events).

If you find your romance in doing things outdoors together, there's 'Snowdrops and Candlemas' at Gatton Park on 7th February, with a talk by Chris Howkins followed by a walk to see the famous Gatton Snowdrops. (Tea and Cake in the ticket price).

As always there is so much going on, so make sure you get out there and support just one venture, because these events just don't happen without you, and if you're buying a Valentine's gift, think carbon footprint and supporting local retailers, and consider what you can find locally before you head up town. There are 2 great suggestions for local gifts for the lady in your life in our centrespread. Otherwise say it with flowers from your local florists (rather than the supermarket or petrol station).
