ARCHWAY THEATRE, HORLEY 01293 784398

2-6 & 9-13 June, Passing Out Parade by Ann Valery

There are few books about the A.T.S. or indeed of any women's services, they are the forgotten army... the one in skirts. Girls from all different walks of life were thrown together and had to make the best of it, the clash of personalities was inevitable. This hilarious and poignant play gives an insight into the problems and situations which ensue from joining the services; comradeship and humour are all contained in this fascinating glimpse into the early years of service given by women in the Second World War.

THE HARLEQUIN, REDHILL 01737 765547

8 June to 9 June, Cymbeline

A heart-stopping enchanting show that dances between the highest tragedy and the wildest comedy. A tour de force of storytelling, based on Shakespeare's outrageous tale!

Hot on the heels of their acclaimed production 'Building on a Dream', ACT do it again!

THE HAWTH, CRAWLEY 01293 553636

12 June, I Miss Communism

Best Touring Show In The UK 2006 (Best Of The Best, Fringe Report) Amnesty International Award, Writer's Guild Award Nominee.

East goes West; communism goes capitalism; atheism goes God. From Croatia to America and back, this intense dramatic comedy solo show is about three women, three generations who lived through three wars, three concentration camps, three governments, three countries and three currencies. The story is about freedom of the spirit not the political systems. It's about a woman coming of age. It's about war, religion and God. It's about Oliver Twist. Through music, tears and great comic timing this story can't leave you untouched.
