LEATHERHEAD THEATRE 01372 365141

2 June, "La Boheme" by G. Puccini

Set in Paris in the 1830s among a group of impoverished Bohemians, the opera centres around the tragic love affair between the seamstress, Mimi, and Rodolfo, a poet. Frivolity, joy, tenderness and sorrow are all expressed in the wonderful music of this most treasured of operas. La Bohème is a masterpiece and is undoubtedly Puccini's finest score.

22&23 June, Defending the Caveman

Direct from London's West End, Defending The Caveman - Winner of the Olivier award for Best Entertainment in 2000 - is set to storm the UK this Spring! The longest running solo play in Broadway history, Defending the Caveman has become a worldwide hit. Why do men and women misunderstand each other? The truth of course, can be traced back to the Caveman. This hilariously funny but horribly truthful show affectionately brings the basic differences between men and women brilliantly up to date... Starring much-loved actor, comedian and TV personality Mark Little – AKA Joe Mangel in Neighbours! "Absolutely Brilliant! Should be seen by anyone who wants to understand the opposite sex" John Gray, author of Men are from Mars, Women are from Venus
