18-22 & 25-29 August, Private Lives by Noel Coward

Amanda and Elyot can't live together and they can't live apart. When they discover that they are honeymooning in adjoining suites in the same hotel with their new spouses, they not only fall in love again, but they also learn to hate each other again. A comedy with a dark underside, fireworks fly as each character yearns desperately for love. Full of Noel Coward's wit and sharp dialogue, Private Lives remains one of the most successful and popular comedies ever written.

4 September, Sounds of the Glenn Miller Era

The lights soften, the mood settles. An audience waits for that first moment of sound. The Big Band is poised, relaxed, but with eyes anxious for the lead. Then, as if giving body to an echo, the murmured notes of 'Moonlight Serenade'...and the night, it seems, is suddenly full and timeless.

THE HAWTH, CRAWLEY 01293 553636

27 September, An Ode To My Sisters

Twin sisters Ferhana and Aishah have grown up with very different outlooks on life and when it comes to choosing their husbands they couldn't be more opposed.

Ferhana yearns to do the right thing while her sister wants to be wildly in love; but how will their family react to their choices?

Based on real life testimonies this highly visual new production combines the touching story with live music and song to celebrate the courage, strength and spirit of Muslim Women.
